

SUNDAY BAR HIRE

Due to the shorter time frame for setting up, delivery, and for the event itself, Haughley Park Barn have imposed the following conditions for drinks provision by the hirer and supply from Fizz Bar Events for a Sunday Wedding.

Although these differ from the Saturday and Wednesday longer hire at Haughley Park Barn, they still offer potential to provide amply for your guests at very reasonable cost to yourself.

With over 25 years of bar service experience throughout East Anglia, I have pleasure in being the tied bar at Haughley Park Barn. I trade under the name Fizz Bar Events and have been working at Haughley for over the last 10 years. I understand the importance of creating a special day and night for you both and I am more than happy to discuss your plans and questions at any point prior to the big day.

Reception: you may provide your own limited drinks.

Please choose 1 alcoholic option and 1 non-alcoholic
(The bar will be open after the ceremony if people wish to have a wider choice)

Alcoholic: Champagne or Prosecco or Bucks Fizz or Pimms

Non-alcoholic: Sparkling elderflower or juice or lemonade

No corkage for reception drinks will be incurred as per the T&C's of Haughley Park Barn
Glass hire is provided by the bar. Service should be arranged through your chosen Caterer. Please note that ice during the reception must be provided by yourself.

Wedding Breakfast: We offer two options for 'table drinks'. Other drinks must be bought from the bar, either by the guest or on a tab run by yourselves.

Option One: All wine/ toasts can be pre bought through the bar. Costs will vary according to your choice but budget approximately £12.50 to £15 per bottle.

I would estimate the number of bottles of wine required per table (based on 8 guests per table)

- 3 bottles per table (ratio of 2x white 1 red) OR
- 3 bottles per table (1x red, 1x white 1xrose)

Option Two: Wine can be supplied by yourselves and delivered to the Barn office during the week before the wedding. Corkage of £7.50 per opened bottle will be charged and invoiced accordingly.

In both options the cooling of drinks, glass hire, serving of drinks and jugs of water on the tables are included.

Bar:

Choices of alternative drinks are available from the bar and options for consideration:

- A pay bar for all guests: guests pay for their own drinks
- A “free” bar : all drinks are given away by the host , a tab is recorded (approximate cost for budgeting purposes £20-£25 per head – 50% required in advance with the remainder invoiced accordingly after the wedding
- A combination of the above: a tab of a certain limit is set with the bar, once this limit is reached guests revert to paying for themselves

A welcome drink for your evening guests can be offered however, this must be through the bar. There are a number of options available for this and some of the most popular are:

- Tab behind the bar – quite often this will only include wine, beer and soft drinks with no spirit/shots included.
- Ticket – these can be bespoke to your wedding and the business cards from Vistaprint work well and are great value for money. These tickets can either be sent with your evening invitations or presented to your evening guest on arrival. My staff record the value of the drink on the back of the tickets and I invoice you afterwards for the total amount.

The bar is staffed according to the number of guests you are expecting.

We do not tolerate aggressive behaviour towards our staff, and reserve the right to refuse service to minors, and to guests we feel have exceeded their alcoholic tolerance level, and pose a risk to themselves.
